PEOPLE LOVING PEOPLE

“One person can't help everybody, but everyone can help somebody.”
(Anyone can help with time, money or both.)

How People Can Help

LEVELS OF GIVING

CASEWORKER

$100,000 covers one year of support for the following:

- Supports one caseworker for a year.
- Provides 300 homeless people given shelter, food, clothing, some health care, job opportunities and transportation.
- Counseling for income and expense budgeting, spiritual beliefs, personal relationships and career choices and advancement.
- Time for developing improvements to program- higher quality and increase awareness of ministry to the public.
- Develop fund raising programs.
- Further research and development in ability to help families at same success rate as single homeless men.
- Develop program to provide more vehicles or reliable, consistent transportation.
- Decrease waiting time and increase accessibility to subsidized or other permanent housing.
- Improve attention given to encouragement of higher education, trade skills, etc.
- Spend more time instilling Christian principles and teaching clients to love and minister to others.
